

PRESS RELEASE

IMPREGILO SELLS, AS PER INDUSTRIAL PLAN, ITS 50% OF SHANGHAI PUCHENG FOR APPROXIMATELY €65 MILLION

THE OPERATION IS A PART OF THE PROCESS TO REALIZE THE VALUE OF NON-CORE ASSETS AND REFOCUS THE BUSINESS ON THE CONSTRUCTION SECTOR

Milan – Rome, 20 November 2013 – Impregilo S.p.A. announces that Impregilo International Infrastructures N.V., a Dutch Law company entirely controlled by the Group, has signed today a contract to sell to Asia Wisdom Investments Limited (entirely controlled by SIIC Environment Holdings Ltd.) its participation in Shanghai Pucheng Thermal Power Energy Co. Ltd. (“Shanghai Pucheng”), a company established under Chinese law.

The participation, equal to 50% of the capital of Shanghai Pucheng, which operates in the waste treatment sector, will be ceded for a consideration of Renminbi 530 million, which equals approximately 65 million euros at today’s exchange rates.

The effectiveness of the operation is subject to the precautionary approvals of the pertinent governmental authorities of Shanghai.

The operation permits Impregilo to achieve another target of the industrial plan, first presented on 23 April 2012, that foresaw a process of realizing the value of non-core activities and with the aim of refocusing its business on the construction sector.
