ANTICIPATION IS RISING FOR THE FRIENDLY FOOTBALL MATCH BETWEEN AC MILAN-AS ROMA ON MAY 31 IN PERTH, AUSTRALIA SPONSORED BY WEBUILD

MILAN, May 9, 2024 – Everything is ready for the friendly football match between AC Milan and AS Roma sponsored by Webuild as major event partner that will be held at the Optus Stadium in Perth on May 31, the first sporting event of its kind in Australia. The match is among the initiatives promoted by Webuild for communities where it operates, including Australia, its second biggest market after Italy.

The match between two of Italy's most celebrated clubs will offer fans across Australia the opportunity to enjoy the magic of Italian football. AC Milan is one of the most successful Serie A clubs with 19 league titles, five Coppa Italia titles, seven Supercoppa Italiana titles and seven Champion League titles. The equally famous AS Roma has three Serie A titles, nine Coppa Italia titles, two Supercoppa Italiana titles, one Coppa delle Fiere title. It also recently won the UEFA Europa Conference League.

The match is an example of the passion, tenacity, determination and team spirit associated with the world of sports – values also shared by the people of Webuild. It is the latest in the sporting and cultural events calendar promoted by the Group in Australia. Another has been the multimedia experience of Leonardo da Vinci – 500 Years of Genius at THE LUME Melbourne. On display are some original pages of the Codex Atlanticus notebook of the Renaissance genius – a first in Australia.

Webuild's commitment to Australia reflects the country's importance to the Group. In terms of revenue and order backlog, it is the second biggest market after Italy. It is also growing. In the state of Western Australia, Webuild and its subsidiary Clough are building one of the largest urea plants in the world for the production of fertilizer. They are also involved in the extension of the largest water treatment plant in the state. In Melbourne, Webuild is working on the tunnelling package of the North East Link, a key section of the city's motorway. In the state of New South Wales, there is Snowy 2.0, a hydropower plant that is the largest renewable energy project currently in the country. In Sydney, Webuild is involved in the construction of six stations for a rail line that will connect the new Western Sydney International Airport (Nancy-Bird Walton) to the city centre as the biggest public-private partnership (PPP) in the state.

Webuild is a global leader in the design and construction of large, complex projects in the sectors of sustainable mobility, hydropower, water management and production, and green buildings. For many years, the recognized leader in the water sector, also ranking among the Top 10 international players in Australia, Europe and the US, the Group has consolidated experience in 50 countries. In almost 120 years of applied engineering on more than 3,200 projects, the Webuild Group has built 14,140 kilometres of rail and metro lines, 82,533 kilometres of roads and highways, 1,020 kilometres of bridges and viaducts, 3,408 kilometres of tunnels, and 313 dams and hydropower plants. Projects include the Bridge over the Danube River in Braila in Romania, and the Genoa Long Beach International Gateway in California; the expansion of the Panama Canal and the Third Bosphorus Bridge in Turkey; the Kingdom Centre skyscraper in Riyadh in Saudi Arabia, and metro lines in Copenhagen, Paris, Rome, Milan, Doha and Ryadh. Projects under construction include the New Genoa Breakwater, the Brenner Base Tunnel, Line 4 of Milan's metro, and Line C of Rome's metro, the Genoa-Milan high-capacity railway line, the Snowy 2.0 hydroelectric project in Australia, and the Trojena project for NEOM in Saudi Arabia. As of December 31, 2023, the Webuild Group with 87,000 people, achieved €10 billion in total revenues, and a total backlog of €64 billion, with over 90% of its construction backlog related to projects linked to the advancement of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Webuild, subject to the direction and coordination of Salini Costruttori S.p.A., is headquartered in Italy and is listed on the Milan stock exchange (WBD; WBD.MI; WBD:IM). Since 2021, it is member of the MIB ESG, the index of Italian companies with the best ESG practices.
