1. PREMISE

This Code of Conduct (the "Code"), approved by the Board of Directors at its meeting of 24 March 2006 and subsequently amended on 1 August 2006, 23 May 2007, 17 December 2014, 15 June 2016, 14 July 2016, 21 February 2018, 26 September 2018, 11 March 2020, 1 September 2020, 25 March 2021 and lastly, 27 May 2024, governs the issue of internal dealing, with specific reference to Webuild S.p.A. ("Webuild" or the "Issuer").

The Code was written in accordance with the provisions of: (i) article 19 of Regulation no. 596/2014 of the European Parliament and Council of 16 April 2014 (hereinafter, the "MAR Regulation"), (ii) European Commission Delegated Regulation no. 2016/522 of 17 December 2015 (hereinafter, "Delegated Regulation 522"), (iii) European Commission Delegated Regulation no. 2016/523 of 10 March 2016 ("Delegated Regulation 523"), (iv) Legislative Decree no. 58 of 24 February 1998 (the "TUF") and the Regulation approved by means of CONSOB resolution no. 11971 of 14 May 1999 (the "Issuer Regulation") and (v) further national regulation applicable at the time.

The purpose of the Code is to govern, with binding effect, the disclosure requirements that the "Relevant Parties" and the "Closely Related Persons" of the Relevant Parties (as identified in articles 2.1 and 2.2 below) are required to comply with in respect of the Issuer in relation to "Significant Transactions", "Shares" "Debt Instruments", "Derivatives", and/or "Related Instruments" (as identified in article 2.3 below), as well as the requirements of the Relevant Party and Webuild in respect of CONSOB and the market concerning the above-mentioned Significant Transactions.

The provisions of this Code are mandatory and, therefore, binding for all recipients, including the Relevant Parties who have not returned to the "Appointed Party" (as identified in article 4 below) the communication that they have read and accepted it, as set out in article 8 below.

The provisions of this Code do not exonerate the Relevant Parties from the obligation to comply with other internal legislative or regulatory standards, applicable at the time. Therefore, awareness of the contents of this Code cannot be considered as a substitute for full knowledge of the relevant rules applicable thereto, to which reference should be made.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 RELEVANT PARTIES

For the purpose of this Code, "Relevant Parties" shall be understood as:

- a) members of the management and control bodies of Webuild;
- b) persons performing management tasks within Webuild and managers with regular access to Inside Information and who have the power to make management decisions affecting the future development prospects of Webuild.

For the purpose of all of the above and in compliance with the applicable rules on the date of this Code, with regard to Webuild, the following shall be considered Relevant Parties:

- members of the Board of Directors of Webuild;
- the standing Statutory Auditors of Webuild;
- the Manager responsible for preparing the company accounts of Webuild;
- the General Manager Corporate & Finance of Webuild;
- the General Manager Global Operations of Webuild;
- further Key Management Personnel

The Board of Directors of Webuild may identify other Relevant Parties, in addition to those set out in this article 2.1, in relation to the activity they perform or to the mandate given thereto, subsequently providing instructions to the Appointed Party (as identified in article 4 below), in order to update the list of the names of Relevant Parties.

2.2 CLOSELY RELATED PERSONS

For the purposes of this Code, "Closely Related Persons" of Relevant Parties, as the case may be, are:

- a) the spouse of a Relevant Party or a partner considered to be equivalent to a spouse in accordance with national law;
- b) dependent child, of a Relevant Party in accordance with national law;
- c) relatives of the Relevant Parties who has shared the same household for at least one year on the date out of the transaction concerned (collectively "Relevant Relatives");
- d) the corporate entities, partnerships and trusts (i) the managerial responsibilities of which are discharged by a Relevant Party or by one of their Relevant Relatives or (ii) which are directly or indirectly controlled by a Relevant Party or one of their Relevant Relatives; or (iii) which is set up for the benefit of a Relevant Party or a Relevant Relative or (iv) the economic interests of which are substantially equivalent to the interests of a Relevant Party or one of their Relevant Relatives.

2.3 OTHER DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Code;

"Shares" are ordinary and saving shares of Webuild;

"Derivatives" are derivative financial instruments with the financial instruments of Webuild as underlyings;

"Inside Information" is the inside information set out in the article 7 of the MAR Regulation, directly concerning Webuild;

"Significant Transactions" are all transactions conducted on behalf of Relevant Parties and/or their Closely Related Persons concerning Shares, Debt Instruments, Derivatives or other Related Instruments, as set out in Appendix 1 of this Code;

"Related Instruments" are financial instruments as set out in article 3, paragraph 2, letter B) of the MAR Regulation, concerning Shares, Debt Instruments or Derivatives, depending on the case¹;

"Debt Instruments" are bonds and other debt instruments issued from time to time by Webuild.

3. CONDUCT AND DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS OF RELEVANT PARTIES

3.1 DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS OF RELEVANT PARTIES

- A. Relevant Parties shall inform Webuild and CONSOB (in this last case, in person or through Webuild) within three working days starting from the date of execution, of the Significant Transactions performed on their behalf and/or on behalf of Closely Related Persons, concerning Shares, Debt Instruments, Derivatives or Related Instruments (it being understood that "execution" shall hereafter refer to the date of conclusion of the Significant Transaction, e.g. through sending a purchase/sales order, even if settlement occurs later).
- B. Without prejudice to the provisions of letter A of article 3.1 above, when Relevant Parties wish to use Webuild to inform to CONSOB of any Significant Transaction, they must, without delay and in any case within 1 working day from the date of the last Significant Transaction, inform the Appointed Party, specifying in the cover letter of the required communication that set out in letter C of article 3.1 below, or following the procedures set out under letter D of article 3.1., that they intend to ask Webuild to inform CONSOB of the Significant Transaction on their behalf, in compliance with article 5.1 of this Code below.

¹ As of the date of entry into force of this Code, article 3, paragraph 2, letter B) of the MAR Regulation defines "Relevant Instruments" as: "the financial instruments specified below, including financial instruments that are not admitted for trading or traded on an exchange, or for which admission to trading on an exchange has not been requested: (i) agreements or rights to subscribe, acquire or dispose of securities; (ii) financial derivatives on securities; (iii) when the securities are convertible or exchangeable debt instruments, securities which the debt instruments may be converted into or exchanged; (iv) instruments issued or guaranteed by the issuer or by the grantor of securities and whose market price may considerably affect the value of the securities or vice versa; (v) when securities are equivalent to shares, the shares represented by those securities as well as all the other securities equivalent to those shares [...]".

C. Each Relevant Party communicates to the Appointed Party the Significant Transactions conducted as follows:

- by e-mail to the Appointed Party, as well as to corporateaffairs@webuildgroup.com, subject to prior notice by telephone to the Appointed Party, on 02/44422206;
- via a form in compliance with the "Filing Model" set out in Appendix 2 to this Code, duly completed and signed. Forms are available from the Appointed Party, as well as on the Issuer's website ("Governance/Internal Dealing" and "Governance / Documents" sections). Communications to CONSOB shall be made by Relevant Parties, or by the Issuer on behalf of the Relevant Parties, as in the case set out under letter B of this article 3.1, by sending to CONSOB the same form provided under Appendix 2 of this Code, following the procedures laid down in the laws and regulations in force.

Communications that do not include all the necessary data for notifications to CONSOB shall be considered as not received.

D. The Appointed Party shall provide instant confirmation to the Relevant Parties, via e-mail, of receipt of the communication.

E. To request clarifications, call 02/44422206 or any number that may be provided at a later date in writing by the Appointed Party.

3.2 EXCLUSIONS

Transactions whose total amount is below Euro 20.000,00 (twenty thousand) by 31 December of each calendar year, or a different amount provided for by the applicable law, are not subject to the disclosure requirements of this Code.

3.3 DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS IN RESPECT OF CLOSELY RELATED PERSONS

In compliance with provisions of article 19, paragraph 5, of the MAR Regulation, each Relevant Party shall notify Closely Related Persons of their obligations in accordance with article 19 of the MAR Regulation and keep a copy of this notification.

4. "APPOINTED PARTY" FOR THE RECEIPT, MANAGEMENT AND RELEASING TO THE MARKET OF INFORMATION

The VP Corporate Affairs of Webuild is the Appointed Party for the receipt, management and releasing to the market of information concerning Significant Transactions communicated by Relevant Parties.

The Appointed Party is tasked with monitoring the application of the Code, submitting any amendments or additions to the Board of Directors.

The Appointed Party also notifies the Board of Auditors, the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Body of any breaches of the provisions of this Code, which he/she observes or becomes aware of during the performance of his/her duties.

A copy of a regularly updated version of the Code shall be on file with the Appointed Party, and will be available to all Relevant Parties.

5. DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS OF WEBUILD TO CONSOB AND THE MARKET

5.1 COMMUNICATION TO CONSOB	Upon request by the Relevant Parties, when they declare, as set out under article 3.1 above, that they do not intend to issue the communication personally, Webuild, via the Appointed Party, will inform CONSOB of the Significant Transaction as set out under article 3.1 performed by the Relevant Parties – or Closely Related Persons thereto, at the latest within three working days from the date the Significant Transaction was conducted.
5.2 COMMUNICATION TO THE MARKET	Webuild, via the Appointed Party, shall publish (following the procedures set out by the law in force) information received from the Relevant Parties at the latest within three working days from the date the Significant Transaction was conducted , and shall also send this information to the authorised storage mechanism.
5.3 SUBSEQUENT CONFIRMATION TO THE RELEVANT PARTY	A copy of the communication issued to the market shall be later also published on the Issuer's website ("Governance/Internal Dealing" section), within the market opening time on the day after the release of the communication. The Appointed Party shall confirm this communication to the Relevant Parties, as set out in articles 5.1 and 5.2 above, concerning the Significant Transactions communicated pursuant to article 3.1 of this Code.
5.4 EXEMPTION FROM LIABILITY	In any event, the Appointed Party is not responsible for non-fulfilment and/or late fulfilment of disclosure requirements in respect of CONSOB and/or the market borne by the Relevant Party and/or of Webuild, when said non-fulfilment or late fulfilment results from omitted, incomplete, incorrect or late communication provided by the Relevant Parties, in breach of their obligations pursuant to this Code and/or article 19 of the MAR Regulation.

6. BLACK-OUT PERIOD

6.1 PROHIBITION ON OPERATION DURING BLACK-OUT PERIOD	The Relevant Parties and the Closely Related Persons connected to them cannot perform any Significant Transaction on their own behalf or on behalf of third parties, directly or indirectly, concerning Shares, Debt Instruments, Derivatives and/or Related Instruments within the 30 (thirty) calendar days preceding the communication to the market of the approval by the management body, of the draft annual financial statements, the half-year report or further periodic financial reports, whose publication is mandatory in compliance with the applicable law and regulations in force at the time (hereinafter the " Black-Out Period ").

6.2 WAIVERS

Webuild may (but is not required to) allow a Relevant Party to trade on its behalf or on behalf of third parties during a Black-Out Period:

- (i) based on a case-by-case assessment in exceptional conditions, such as serious financial difficulties that require the immediate sale of Shares; or
- (ii) owing to the characteristics of the trade in the event of Significant Transactions performed at the same time or in relation to an employee shareholding plan or a savings programme, a warranty or rights to shares, or Significant Transactions in which the beneficial interest of the security in question is not subject to change.

The Relevant Party must send to the Webuild Board of Directors a reasoned request in writing, at least 6 (six) calendar days before the date scheduled for the execution of the Significant Transaction. This written request must include:

- in the cases set out in sub (i) of the first paragraph of article 6.2 above, the description of the Transaction and a sufficiently detailed explanation of the exceptional circumstances that make the immediate sale of Shares necessary; the reasons why the sale of Shares is the only reasonable way to obtain the funds needed and why this sale of Shares cannot be conducted at any other time than during the Black-Out Period; and
- in the cases set out in sub (ii) of the first paragraph of article 6.2 above, an indication of the number and type of the financial instruments concerned, as well as the reasons why the execution of a Significant Transaction during a Black-Out Period is necessary or appropriate.

In assessing whether to allow a trade during a Black-Out Period, the Webuild Board of Directors must comply with the criteria and provisions of articles 8 and 9 of Delegated Regulation 522. The Relevant Party concerned shall fully cooperate and shall send to the Board of Directors as soon as possible, and in any case in good time, any document and additional information that the Board may reasonably request for the purposes of the its assessment.

In the event that consent is not given for any reason, the Relevant Party asset out under article 2.1, letters a) and b) shall abstain, under their own responsibility, from conducting the transaction until the end of the Black-Out Period in question.

7. PENALTIES

Non-compliance with the obligations and prohibitions provided by this Code shall result in, in the event of repeat and unjustified breaches:

- for Webuild employees: the application of disciplinary penalties provided by the laws in force and the applicable collective contracts;
- for any other associates, the termination of the relationship, even without notice;
- for Directors and Statutory Auditors, the Board of Directors may propose at the next shareholders' meeting the revocation for just cause of the Director or Statutory Auditor in breach.

It is also specified that non-compliance by Relevant Parties and their Closely Related Persons with the provisions of applicable law on internal dealing and of this Code is subject to penalties as established by the laws in force at the time.

8. COMMUNICATION TO RELEVANT PARTIES AND ACCEPTANCE OF THE CODE

The Appointed Party shall send to Relevant Parties the communication set out in Appendix 3 of this Code, together with a copy of the Code itself.

On receipt of the Code, the Relevant Parties shall: (a) sign a declaration of acknowledgment and acceptance, prepared following the model provided in Appendix 3, also certifying their commitment to notify in writing their Closely Related Persons of the disclosure requirements regarding Significant Transactions, as well as to make their Closely Related Persons do whatever is necessary to allow proper fulfilment of said obligations – in accordance with article 1381 of the Civil Code; (b) promptly send – and in any case within 10 (ten) working days from the receipt of the copy of the Code – this declaration to the Appointed Party, through one of the means set out in article 3.1 of the Code.

The Appointed Party shall draw up and promptly update the list of names of the Relevant Parties and of their Closely Related Persons.

9. AMENDMENTS AND ADDITIONS

Amendments and additions to this Code, if substantial in nature, are referred to the Webuild Board of Directors.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO of Webuild are authorised to make purely formal amendments that do not affect the content of the Code itself, and shall notify the Board of Directors of this at the next meeting.

The Appointed Party is tasked with monitoring over time that the Code continues to meet the requirements of effectiveness and functionality; for this purpose, it formulates proposals to amend the Code for the Board of Directors.

10. ENTRY INTO FORCE

This version of the Code shall enter into force on 27th May 2024.

11. APPENDICES TO THE CODE AND DISTRIBUTION LIST OF THE CODE

This Code includes the following appendices:

- Appendix 1. Significant Transactions
