WEBUILD CONFIRMS ITS LEADERSHIP IN SUSTAINABILITY WITH AN “A-” RATING IN THE CDP CLIMATE CHANGE 2024 PROGRAM RECOGNIZING THE GROUP’S ENVIRONMENTAL COMMITMENT ON A GLOBAL SCALE

- The “A-” rating, maintained for the third consecutive year, highlights Webuild’s ongoing commitment and investment in the fight against climate change
- Webuild also received a “B” rating in the Water Security category, recognizing its responsible water resource management
- The Group strengthens its position as an environmental leader, ensuring clear and comparable sustainability reporting—an increasingly crucial factor for stakeholders and investors.

Milan, 11 February 2024 – Webuild has been officially recognized, for the third consecutive year, as a global leader in the fight against climate change, earning an "A-" rating from the CDP’s Climate Change 2024 program (formerly the Carbon Disclosure Project). The CDP’s program evaluates the environmental impact and corporate transparency of more than 24,800 companies worldwide, aiming to drive a more sustainable global economy.

As part of this program, Webuild has also received a “B” rating in the Water Security section, which was assessed for the first time in 2024. This recognition additionally highlights the company’s responsible water management efforts, focusing on reducing freshwater withdrawals and increasing the use of water reuse solutions.

The CDP’s recognition further strengthens Webuild’s position as an environmental leader. For years, the Group has integrated environmental strategic goals into its long-term plans along with growth policies, playing a key role in promoting sustainable development in its operating regions.

The CDP rating, awarded after a thorough evaluation of Webuild’s environmental policies and performance, provides stakeholders with a clear and reliable measure of the Group’s sustainability efforts. It provides clear, independent, and comparable insights.

Over the years, Webuild has received numerous international recognitions for its commitment to ESG principles. The Group is included in the Borsa Italiana’s MIB® ESG Index and ranks among the top players in its sector based on ESG ratings from independent organizations, including ISS-ESG (B- Prime level), Moody’s ESG – formerly Vigeo Eiris (Advanced level), MSCI ESG Ratings (AA), and Ecovadis Sustainability Rating (78/100, Gold Medal).

Webuild is a global leader in the design and construction of large, complex infrastructure projects in sustainable mobility, hydropower, water treatment, and green buildings. A recognized leader in the water sector, it is present in 50 countries with over 92,000 people, ranking among the leading international players in Australia, Europe and the United States. In nearly 120 years of applied engineering on more than 3,200 projects, the Group has built 14,140 kilometres of rail and metro lines, 82,533 kilometres of roads and highways, 1,020 kilometres of bridges and viaducts, 3,408 kilometres of tunnels, and 313 dams and hydropower plants. Projects include the expansion of the Panama Canal, the Long Beach International Gateway bridge in California, the Third Bosphorus Bridge in Turkey, the Sydney Metro Northwest skytrain viaduct and bridge, the Kingdom Centre skyscraper in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, and metro lines in Copenhagen, Paris, Rome, Milan, Doha and Riyadh. Others under construction include the new Genoa Breakwater, the Brenner Base Tunnel, Line C of Rome’s metro network, the high-capacity railways between Genoa and Milan, and Naples and Bari, the Palermo-Catania-Messina high-capacity railway, the Snowy 2.0 hydropower scheme in Australia, and the Trojena dam network for NEOM in Saudi Arabia. As of June 30, 2024, Webuild Group achieved a total backlog of €65 billion, with more than 90% of its construction backlog related to projects linked to the advancement of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). As of December 31, 2023, revenues totalled €10 billion. Webuild, subject to the direction and coordination of Salini Costruttori S.p.A., is headquartered in Italy and listed on the Milan stock exchange, Borsa Italiana (WBD; WBD.MI; WBD:IM). Since 2021, it is member of the MIB ESG, the index of publicly listed Italian companies with the best ESG practices.
