Webuild is a global leader in the construction of large-scale, complex infrastructure projects for sustainable mobility, hydroelectric power, water management and production, and green building. This position is also recognised by the rankings of ENR (Engineering News-Record), leading publications in the construction sector, which in 2026 confirmed Webuild as the world leader in the Water sector and ranked it amongst the top ten global operators in the Transportation sector. Webuild contributes to the construction of projects that transform regions and communities, generating long-term economic, social and environmental value. Operating in around 50 countries with a workforce of over 85,000 people, comprising both direct employees and third-party staff, the Group can draw on over 120 years of history and more than 3,700 completed projects. Its track record includes 13,686 kilometres of railways, 895 kilometres of underground railways, 82,708 kilometres of roads and motorways, 1,023 kilometres of bridges and viaducts, 3,466 kilometres of tunnels and 320 dams and hydroelectric power stations. Webuild has delivered some of the world's most iconic projects, including the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam (GERD), the expansion of the Panama Canal, the Long Beach International Gateway in the United States, the Second Bosphorus Bridge in Turkey and the Riachuelo environmental remediation project in Argentina. It has also contributed to the development of advanced urban mobility systems in major international capitals, including Copenhagen, Paris, Rome, Milan, Naples, Doha, Thessaloniki and Riyadh. The Group is currently involved in the construction of some of the most strategic infrastructure projects in Italy and around the world, including the New Outer Breakwater in Genoa, the Brenner Base Tunnel, the Lombardy Foothills Motorway, Line C of the Rome Metro, sections of the high-speed and high-capacity railway lines between Genoa and Milan, Verona–Padua, Naples–Bari, the New Palermo–Catania–Messina Route, as well as projects such as the Snowy 2.0 hydroelectric plant in Australia and significant sections of the Grand Paris Express in France and the Riyadh Metro in Saudi Arabia. As at 31 December 2025, the Group recorded total revenue of €13.6 billion. As at 30 June 2026, the total order book stood at €53.7 billion, with over 95 per cent of the construction backlog relating to projects aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. Headquartered in Italy and subject to the management and coordination of Salini Costruttori S.p.A., Webuild is listed on the Milan Stock Exchange (WBD; WBD.MI; WBD:IM).
