PRESS NOTE

WEBUILD: FILIPPO MARIA GRASSO APPOINTED HEAD OF COMMUNICATION AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Milan, November 19, 2026 – Webuild announces that, effective Monday, November 23, Filippo Maria Grasso will take over responsibility for the Group's Communication and Public Affairs department, reporting to Chief Executive Officer Pietro Salini.

Born in Rome in 1978, with a degree in Law, Grasso has some 20 years of experience in institutional relations at major publicly listed industrial groups. After a period at Telecom Italia, he joined Pirelli in 2007, where he worked on national and international projects before moving on to serve as head of Global Institutional Affairs & Sustainability. Since 2020 he has led Corporate Bodies Affairs and Institutional Affairs at Leonardo.

Luigi Vianello, who has headed the Group's communication since 2012, accompanied Webuild's international growth and the building of its identity and reputation with the media, institutions and stakeholders. He will continue to support the Chief Executive Officer as Senior Advisor for strategic activities related to communication processes. Webuild thanks him for his work, his professionalism and his contribution over the years.

Webuild is a global leader in the construction of large, complex infrastructure for sustainable mobility, hydropower, water and wastewater treatment and management, and green buildings. Its primacy is reflected in the 2026 rankings of trade publication Engineering News-Record (ENR), which confirmed its leadership in the water sector and placed it among the top 10 global contractors in transportation. Webuild helps deliver projects that transform communities and regions, creating lasting social, economic, and environmental value. Active in approximately 50 countries with a workforce of more than 83,000 people, direct and indirect, Webuild boasts more than 120 years of history and over 3,700 completed projects. Its track record includes 13,686 kilometres of railways, 895 kilometres of metros, 82,708 kilometres of roads and highways, 1,023 kilometres of bridges and viaducts, 3,466 kilometres of tunnels, and 320 dams and hydropower plants. Webuild has delivered some of the world's most iconic projects, including the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam, the expansion of the Panama Canal, the Long Beach International Gateway in the United States, the Second Bridge over the Bosphorus in Turkey, and the Riachuelo environmental restoration system in Argentina. It has also contributed to the development of advanced urban mobility systems in major cities, including Copenhagen, Paris, Rome, Milan, Naples, Doha, Thessaloniki, and Riyadh. Today, Webuild is engaged in the construction of some of the most strategic infrastructure projects in Italy and elsewhere, such as the New Genoa Breakwater, the Brenner Base Tunnel, the Pedemontana Lombarda Highway, Rome Metro's Line C, and sections of the Genoa–Milan, Verona–Padua and Naples–Bari high-speed/high-capacity railways, as well as the Palermo–Catania–Messina line. It is also involved in the Snowy 2.0 hydropower scheme in Australia, key sections of the Grand Paris Express in France, and the expansion of the Riyadh Metro in Saudi Arabia. As of December 31, 2025, Webuild reported total revenues of €13.6 billion. As of June 30, 2026, its total order backlog amounted to €53.7 billion, with more than 95% of its construction backlog related to projects aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. Headquartered in Italy and subject to the direction and coordination of Salini Costruttori S.p.A., Webuild is listed on the Milan Stock Exchange (WBD; WBD.MI; WBD:IM).
